Itinerary may differ depending on the day of the week. Kindly refer to your final documents for the confirmed itinerary.*

Day 6: Thimphu & Punakha

Accommodations: 1 night Drubchhu Resort, Zhingkhram Resort, or similar Punakha. Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Scenic journey to the town on Punakha
- Hike up a small hill to the Chimi Lhakhang
- Visit to the Punakha Dzong fortress

Full Day Itinerary: Today, drive to the town of Punakha, making scenic stops along the way. Take in sweeping, panoramic views of the snowcapped Himalayan mountain ranges at the Dochula Pass. Continue driving to Lobesa, where you'll hike up a small hill to the Chimi Lhakhang, a temple dedicated to Drukpa Kunley, the great 14th century Yogi. Locals believe that this temple blesses women seeking fertility.

Depending on time, lunch will be before or after the walk. Afterwards, proceed to the majestic Punakha Dzong. Situated between the Phochu and Mochu Rivers ("Male" and "Female" Rivers, respectively), this fortress is the most magnificent in all of Bhutan. In the 17th and 18th centuries, it served as the country's capital. Today, it houses the district administrative and judiciary offices as well as the winter home for Bhutan's spiritual leader, Je Khenpo, and the 600 monks of Thimphu and Punakha.

Day 7: Punakha & Trongsa

Accommodations: 1 night Yangkhil Resort, Trongsa. Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Scenic drive to Trongsa
- Climb through the semi-tropical vegetation to Pele Pass
- View the Chendebji Chorten monument
- Visit the Trongsa Dzong

Full Day Itinerary: After a hearty breakfast early this morning, set out on the fabulous drive to Trongsa. Take in the breathtaking beauty and serenity of Bhutan's diverse, untouched flora and fauna along the way.

Thanks to its isolation, small population, mountainous terrain, and the national religion of Buddhism, which stresses the sanctity of all life, Bhutan has protected virtually all of its forests and wildlife. As a result, this tiny kingdom, in contrast to all of its neighbors, possesses the last truly intact, large-scale ecosystem in the Himalayas.

Climb through the semi-tropical vegetation to Pele Pass (elevation of 10,989 feet), traditionally considered the boundary between West and East Bhutan. From here, proceed through an alpine forest of rhododendrons and dwarf bamboo to the Chendebji Chorten, a large 18th century Buddhist monument constructed by a Lama to cover the remains of an evil spirit that was believed to terrorize inhabitants of the valley. Visit the majestic Trongsa Dzong, built in 1647 by Shubdrung Nawang Namgyal. This Dzong was the source of many important historical events in making of Modern Bhutan. You will be dropped off at the junction in the road to the Bazaar and the Dzong, and walk from here to the Dzong.

Day 8: Trongsa & Bumthang

Accommodations: 2 nights Yugharling Resort & Spa, Bumthang. Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Drive to Taa Dzong
- Learn about Yathra weavings in the Tsungney village
- Visit the Kurjey Lhakhang
- Cross the suspension bridge to Padmasambhava Lhakhang
- Hike to Tamshing Lhakhang and to the Konchogsum Lhakhang

Full Day Itinerary: After breakfast, drive to Taa Dzong, an ancient watchtower that is now a museum dedicated to the Kings of Bhutan. After lunch at the hotel, drive to Bumthang, crossing the Yotongla Pass into the first of four valleys of Bumthang known as Chumey. Stop at the Tsungney village to learn about Yathra weavings and continue to your hotel in the Chokhor Valley.

After lunch, your vehicle will drop you at the Kurjey Lhakhang. It is believed that in the eighth century Guru Padmasambhava had meditated here and subdued the local deity known as Shelging Karpo. Begin your hike from here crossing the suspension bridge and visit Padmasambhava Lhakhang. This is another Meditation site of Guru Padmasambhava. It was founded by Pema Lingpa in 15th century and was restored by the Grand Queen Mother of present King. Continue your hike to Tamshing Lhakhang, founded in beginning of the 16th century by Saint Pema Lingpa. Next you will visit Konchogsum Lhakhang built in the 8th century. The Temple is famous for its bell, which bears an inscription from the eighth century. Overnight at Hotel.

Day 9: Bumthang

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Scenic drive to Ura village
- Visit the Ura Temple and then continue to the village of Ura
- Lunch at the local village house with free time to explore

Full Day Itinerary: After breakfast set off on a scenic drive to Ura village, situated at 10,000 feet high above sea level. About 40-50 closely packed houses alongside cobblestone streets give the village a medieval atmosphere. En route, stop at Serthangla Pass for a view of the Ura Valley below. From here, hike downhill to visit the Ura Temple and then continue to the village of Ura making frequent stops to converse with the villagers and children. Enjoy lunch at a village house, then take time to explore the area. Afterwards, say goodbye to this beautiful village as you return to Bumthang.

Day 10: Bumthang & Paro + Festival

Accommodations: 3 nights Zhiwa Ling Hotel, Paro. Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- This morning, transfer to the Bumthang airport for your short flight back to Paro
- Upon arrival, transfer to the hotel, and if time permits, enjoy some afternoon sightseeing or shopping
- Bhutanese Festival Celebration

This evening, take part in the festivities at your hotel as you attend a Bhutanese Festival Celebration. Through these Mock Festivals you can get a taste of what these incredible experiences are like complete with Bhutanese dances, brightly colored masks, elaborate costumes and more. Celebrated annually, these ancient religious festivals serve as a spiritual revival and reminder of the connection between past, present, and future.

Day 11: Paro

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Sightseeing of Paro valley
- National Museum of Bhutan

Day 12: Paro

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch & dinner.

- Taktsang Monastery
- Remainder of the day at leisure

Full Day Itinerary: After an early breakfast, depart for the spectacular Taktsang Monastery, a site believed to be the birthplace of Buddhism in Bhutan. The Monastery's moniker, which translates as "Tiger's Lair", refers to the tale of Guru Padmasambhava, the Tantric mystic who brought Buddhism to Bhutan and supposedly landed at this site on the back of a flying tiger. Completed in 1692, the monastery is perched on a cliff 2,300 feet above the Paro Valley. To view the monastery, enjoy a couple hour hike along a trail that climbs through a dense pine forest, where you'll see trees festooned with Spanish moss and an occasional grove of fluttering prayer flags. After light refreshments at a rest stop along the way, continue hiking until you clearly see the remains of this magnificent 17th century monastery that sits high atop a sheer rock cliff. Here you'll get a chance to view the interior of this great monastery. Descend the trail for lunch at the cafeteria. After lunch, continue your hike back to the Paro Valley to enjoy the balance of the day at leisure to explore the town.

Day 13: Paro & Bangkok
