FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEFriendly Planet Travel Offers Second Chance for Huge Cyber Discounts

All tours discounted again for 24-hour 'Second Chance Monday' sale

JENKINTOWN, Pa.—December 5, 2013—For any traveler who wasn't able to take advantage of Friendly Planet Travel's blowout Cyber Monday sale, the leading international tour operator is still in the holiday spirit and is giving travel enthusiasts another chance to book the trip of a lifetime at incredibly discounted prices. The company's "Second Chance Monday" 24-hour online-only sale will be held on Dec. 9. Every tour will be discounted up to $300 including destinations in 36 countries across Europe, Asia, South America, Africa, the Caribbean, and more.

"On Cyber Monday, many travelers were able to book the trip they've been dreaming of because of the huge discounts we were able to offer," says Peggy Goldman, President of Friendly Planet Travel. "But we also heard from many others who didn't have the chance to take advantage of our huge sale. So, to give those travelers another opportunity to book the trip of a lifetime, we are slashing our already low prices for one more day during our Second Chance Monday sale. For anyone who is planning to travel in 2014 and wants to find the best deal on the internet, now is the time to book."

Beginning Dec. 9 at 12:01 a.m. EST and ending at 11:59 p.m. EST, all Friendly Planet Travel tours will be reduced between $100 and $300 per person. This special Second Chance Monday sale is valid for online bookings only and may not be used toward existing reservations. Travelers are welcome to call Friendly Planet with questions, but actual reservations must be made online. The deals are not combinable with any other promotions or discounts.
